

As part of our ongoing commitment to open data, the Toronto Police Service continues to release data sets relating to completed Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act requests that are of public interest.

This data includes Field Information Reports reported between 2008.01.01 and 2013.11.04.

In accordance with the Municipal Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act, the Toronto Police Service has taken the necessary measures to protect the privacy of individuals involved. No personal information related to any of the parties involved will be released as open data.

This data reflects information entered by Service members and may contain data entry issues.

These data sets, which are broken down by reported year, are additional releases within the Public Safety Data Portal.
